

NOW

Is the time to sit for your Holiday pictures. We intend to make the best in our line and it takes time to do it. Our Christmas orders are coming in fast and as usual we shall endeavor to complete work in the order of the sittings.

First Come, First Served.

Don't put it off another day but

COME NOW.

Here's a 'Corker' Sure

When your purchases at my store amount to $5 you are entitled to an order on J. W. King, the Photographer, on presentation of which, together with $1.50 you will receive Six of King's Best Finished Cabinets and One Steel Engraving Photograph on an India Tint Mount.

This offer is for a Limited Time. Take advantage of it.

NOTICE—I have removed my stock of goods to No. 252 Front street. Periodical tickets given.

Hot Water Bottles.

We don't claim that the Esquimo uses a hot water bottle but he would if we were running a drug store in Greenland; because we would call his attention to our complete line of these goods at bottom prices. We are liable to have some Arctic weather this winter—cold enough to make people think they're on an iceberg. It will be a good time then to think of our hot water bottles.

S. J. HATZWAY, Administrator.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, DEC. 11, 1906

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—The bloodhound pup recently purchased for the use of the police force has been named Lady Rockwood.

—The wedding of Mr. Henry W. Best and Miss Myrtle Williams occurred Thursday evening at the home of the bride on Upper Front street. Mr. and Mrs. Best are of Marietta's best known young people and will receive the congratulations of a multitude of friends.

—Thursday afternoon while Mr. Warren Corner, of Sand Hill, was driving on Second street, near Butler, his horse took fright at a train and ran away out Butler street to Front and down Front to the Bellevue hotel. Mr. Corner was thrown out in the mud on Butler street, but not seriously injured. At the corner of Front and Butler the runaway collided with a wagon and demolished the buggy. Mr. C. S. Dana was knocked down and run over by the frightened horse, but fortunately was not hurt.

—A marvel of choice goods for Christmas at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 236 Front St. —The Bazar at the Unitarian church opened last night, and it started off with an impulse that marks the usual success of the fair which the Unitarians annually hold. A good supper was enjoyed, and many useful and pretty articles were on sale, offered by pretty girls in costumes representing various nationalities. The Bazar will be continued this evening. If you want a good supper and a pleasant evening, go!

—Sam. Young's Melville Co. drew a big house last night, every seat being taken. The play "Zeb," was the presentation of rural life, and it was full of broad fun. The amateurs who appeared were the Messrs. Pfug in baton-twirling, and very good work it was, too; and Count Cuenot in burnt cork monologue. Also the lady who had never been in an opera house before in her life—a colored infant. The show was a laugh from beginning to end, and was greatly enjoyed. A matinee will be held Saturday afternoon, when "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" will be played.

—There is much speculation among the fraternity as to the personal of next year's team to represent Marietta in the Ohio and West Virginia League. The other cities in the League are already looking for players and it is safe to say that Marietta is not behind them. The management of the local nine will be in competent hands and Marietta may be expected to imitate the record of 1896, when she stood second to none. It is reasonably certain that four or five of the old players will be retained on the new club, including Captain Tom Williams, whose splendid work at the bat changed the result of more than one game. Weak places will be strengthened with good material and first-class ball playing for Marietta is assured.

—The Enquirer has the following Washington, D. C., personal item: "E. R. Alderman, ex-Postmaster of Marietta, with Mrs. Alderman, was in Washington today enroute home from Philadelphia. Mr. Alderman is also editor of a Republican newspaper at home. He called on Mark Hanna and Charles G. Dawes merely to pay his respects, but there are those from Southern Ohio who intimate that Alderman would like the Postoffice again."

—China for decorating. All sorts of pretty things. See them at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 236 Front St.

—State School Commissioner Corson has given out the following figures, showing the amount spent by Ohio last year for public schools: Balance on hand Nov. 15, 1895, $1,190,062.08; receipts from State Tax, $7,414,647.33; school fund, $173,988.06; rent on Section 10, $22,226.24; local taxes for schoolhouse purposes, $994,617.75; sale of bonds, $130,124.80; fines, tuition, etc., $532,813.98; total, $18,964,692.25. Expenditures: Salaries to elementary teachers, $7,091,803.11; to high school teachers, $913,849.92; total, $8,005,710.07; management and superintendents, $311,714.29; sites and buildings, $1,121,487.47; interest and redemption of bonds, $1,430,189.58; contingent expenses, $2,888,008.25; total expenditures, $13,757,109.72. Balance on hand, Nov. 15, 1896, $5,207,492.53; amount of outstanding orders, $100,882.70; the expenditures are $432,892.82 less than they were last year.

—The sidewalk on Greene street, between Fourth and Seventh streets, was completed yesterday and is one of the finest lines of pavement in the city.

—By an agreement between the Marietta Electric Company and the Marietta Street Railway Company the former purchases from the latter the Putnam, Front and Greene street franchises and also the old track. The consideration, we understand, is $6,300. By this agreement any possible clash between the two companies is avoided and the electric line will be constructed down Front street without delay.

—Leave your order for fine groceries with us. It will receive prompt attention. Goods delivered to any part of the city. WHARF & THOMAS, 138 Putnam St.

—Mrs. Judge W. B. Loomis, Mrs. Miriam Loomis, Miss Woodbridge and Willis Cotton, of Marietta, were guests of Mrs. Sands today. They came down to attend the performance of the Players Club.—Journal.

—W. H. Ferry, representing the Gormulley & Jeffery Mfg. Co., arrived in the city Thursday evening with the 1897 models of the Rambler bicycle and is stopping at the Bellevue. The wheels will be on exhibition there this evening and the cyclists of the city are invited to call and inspect them. The list price on Rammers has been reduced from $100 to $80.

—T. N. Barnsdall has been laid up several days with rheumatism.

—Joseph Snakard left last night for Cairo on a business trip.

—The C. & M. railroad, besides other improvements that are being made, are getting a number of new coaches which have been painted with what is known as the Pennsylvania standard colors, dark red with gold trimmings. Two of the new cars, one passenger and one combination baggage and passenger, were received Thursday. They present a very pretty appearance. In speaking of the new cars Superintendent Taylor and Master Mechanic Glaser said it was the company's plan to have all their passenger cars repainted in these colors and that they would soon be in use.—Jeffersonian.

—Mr. C. B. Schaffer, of Pittsburg, is in the city in the interest of the Florence Oil Co.

—The case of Essie Preston against the Board of Directors of the Vincent Special School District was decided by Judge Sibley Thursday in favor of the defendants on the original petition and in favor of the plaintiff on the supplementary petition. It was held that Miss Preston, who removed from her home in another county to reside with her aunt at Vincent, was not entitled to attend the school until becoming of age, but it appeared by the supplementary petition that she has since arrived at the age of 18 years and is thereby entitled to choose her own place of residence. She may, therefore, attend the school until she is 21.

—The American Express Company has opened a branch office in Styer's Putnam street drugstore to accommodate the holiday trade.

—A covered wagon is being run on Third street to supply the demand of the public for means of transportation between the upper and lower ends of the city until the electric street railroad is completed.

—Col. J. H. Riley has so far recovered from a severe attack of illness as to be able to be out.

—Miss Mary Hubbell is the guest of friends in the city.

—M. R. Johnson, of Beverly, was in the city on business Thursday.

—Dr. W. H. Gillespie, of Sistersville, is a visitor in the city.

—J. S. Goebel left Thursday for St. Louis, where he will remain several days.

—The Muskingum Valley Poultry show at Lowell closed Thursday after a most successful exhibition.

—The Matamoros Mail contains a shocking story of an unusual and probably fatal case of somnambulism at Friendly, W. Va., opposite New Matamoros. Two young men crossing the Ohio river about midnight discovered Mrs. Moore, an aged lady, clinging to the willows along the bank and calling piteously for help. She was clad only in her night clothing, with her body entirely submerged in the chilly water. She was rescued and taken to the home of her son, with whom she resided, where she lies in a precarious condition. Her terrible experience was no doubt due to somnambulism, as she remembered nothing after having retired for the night.

—Choice candies, nuts, fruits, etc., at Wharf & Thomas', 138 Putnam street.

—The Melville Company will present tonight John Baldwin Buckstone's picturesque drama, "The Gypsy Queen." This is one of the best plays in the company's repertoire and is in distinct contrast with the plays so far produced. A realistic rain storm with calcium light effects is one of the features.

—The social of the Presbyterian church will be entertained this evening by Mrs. Putnam, at her home on Fifth street, near Seaclem. A regular supper will be served from 6 p. m. on, and also ice cream with cake separately. A general invitation is extended.

—Mr. Edwin I. Mendenhall and Miss Vesta Matheny, of Noble county, were married at the St. Cloud hotel last evening. Rev. F. R. Crooks officiating. The good wishes of the Leader follow them.

—The assault and battery case of Ohio vs. William Johnson, who was arrested on complaint of Frank Sanders, came before Judge Rood Thursday on a transcript from the court of Mayor Melsenhelder. Johnson was fined $3 and costs.

—The new grocery firm, Wharf & Thomas, Putnam street, have a fine new delivery wagon on the street, the work of J. W. Kelly.

—Frank Hill moved into his new house Wednesday, at the head of Lancaster street.

—Mrs. C. W. Holz has just received an elegant and well selected stock of cut glass for Christmas trade. See it.

Pittsburg Joins

In Paying Tribute to the Little Conqueror.

From Pittsburg Leader.

A young man went to a very wealthy and successful manufacturer a short time ago and applied for employment. "What can you do?" the manufacturer said, and the young man proceeded to tell in glowing terms of his wonderful ability.

"But I don't want to know what you say you can do," the gentleman replied; "let me know what others say you have done. Bring me recommendations from people I know and can trust."

It's the same way with medicines. People don't want to know what the manufacturers say they CAN do, but what those who have used them say they HAVE done. In presenting Doan's Kidney Pills we do not simply tell you that they are a sovereign remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, we tell you what they have done, people whose statements you can verify any day, and about whose testimony there cannot be the slightest shadow of a doubt. One case of particular interest in this connection is that of Mrs. Jas. Ferris, who lives at 491 Fifth avenue, Pittsburg, Pa., and who is well known in that community. "About 11 months ago," Mrs. Ferris said in telling her story, "I had a severe attack of lumbago, which settled in my back and kidneys. I spent a good deal of money consulting physicians and using various remedies, but all to no purpose. I was completely discouraged. The pain in my back was so bad, and there was such a dragging feeling, that I could scarcely get around at all. I could not do any work, and was scarcely every free from these terrible pains in my back. A couple of months ago my husband saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, and we decided to try them, although I am free to confess that we did not have much faith that they would help me. The result was a delightful surprise, however. They gave me almost immediate relief, and since taking them I have not been troubled at all. They did me more good than all the other remedies I had taken put together. I am glad to testify to the virtues of Doan's Pills."

You'll find Doan's Kidney Pills just as effective in your case if you are troubled with lame back, backache, a dull, listless feeling that you want to get rid of, or any of the other forms of kidney disorder. You can get Doan's Kidney Pills at your druggist's, at 50 cents a box, or they will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., sole agents, Buffalo, N. Y.
